33rd Annual Meeting of the Society for Invertebrate Pathology and 5th International Conference on Bacillus thuringiensis, Guanajuato, Mexico. August 13-18, 2000

The colonial city of Guanajuato, Mexico, is ready to receive the participants of the 33rd Annual Meeting of the Society for Invertebrate Pathology and the 5th International Conference on Bacillus thuringiensis.

Scientific sessions and conferences will be held at the main building of the University of Guanajuato, from Monday 14 to Friday 18 August. The meeting will begin with a mixer at the gardens of Hotel Parador San Javier on Sunday evening, August 13. The same hotel will also hold the SIP Council Meeting, on Sunday.

The general format of the meeting will follow that of previous SIP meetings, with daily scientific sessions and poster presentations, Monday morning through Friday noon. Division business meetings will be scheduled for Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Registration packages will be distributed on Sunday afternoon from 3-6 PM at the SIP meeting office in the Hotel Parador San Javier. Registration will also be available at the SIP meeting office at the University of Guanajuato, on Monday and Tuesday mornings. The University of Guanajuato is about a 30-minute walk from the Hotel Parador San Javier; however, scheduled transportation will be provided. For those arriving late to the conference, taxis provide a fast and inexpensive ride. Arrangements are being made at the
