

NEWSLETTER

SOCIETY FOR INVERTEBRATE PATHOLOGY

Volume 1 Number 2

February 26, 1968

SPECIAL NOTICE

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING, SEPTEMBER 3-7 1968 AT COLUMBUS, OHIO (with AIBS)

Information and ADVANCED REGISTRATION FORMS are included with this Newsletter.
Send in your application NOW!

NEWS OF THE SOCIETY

The Society membership now stands at 255 in number with applications still arriving. This very encouraging demonstration of interest should portend a strong and active International Society. The countries represented by the membership are Canada, England, France, Holland, Germany, Italy, Spain, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Russia, Japan, Switzerland, Thailand, Formosa, Sweden, India, Africa, and U. S. A.

* * *

Dr. Carlo M. Ignoffo, Chairman of the Membership Committee has announced the Committee membership. They are M. Laird (Canada), K. Aizawa (Japan), H. T. Dulmage (USA), Y. Tanada (USA), H. D. Burges (England), G. R. Bell (USA), and G. E. Allen (USA).

* * *

Dr. Leslie A. Stauber, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, has also announced that K. Aizawa (Japan), June Chadwick (Canada), O. Lysenko (Czechoslovakia), J. D. Paschke (USA), Sung Y. Feng (USA), Thomas C. Cheng (USA), T. W. Tinsley (England), and P. A. van der Laan (Holland) comprise the membership of his committee. A tentative slate of officers has been made up and ballot forms will be on their way to the membership as soon as possible.

* * *

In order to accomplish the original goal of forming a truly International Society, the President, E. A. Steinhaus has invited Professor C. Vago to consult with the Council concerning the proper form of the Constitution and Bylaws as well as the structure of the Society. Prof. Vago has had much experience working in international organizations and it is hoped that he will contribute significantly to this task.

* * *

PRELIMINARY MEETING PLANS

Tuesday, September 3

Morning
Afternoon

AIBS Plenary Session
SIP Plenary Session
Presidential Address
SIP Business Meeting
Reports on International Congress
Mixer and dinner

Evening

Wednesday, September 4

Morning
Afternoon
Evening

Contributed papers, unpublished results
Contributed papers, unpublished results
Schnapps Night

Thursday, September 5

Morning, Afternoon,
and Evening

Rooms reserved for special conference for small groups up to 30 persons to deal with selected topics: protozoan infections of invertebrates, invertebrate cell culture, immunological responses etc.

Contributed papers for the sessions on Wednesday morning and afternoon are to be presented in 10 minutes with 5 minutes set aside for discussion.

Applications should be submitted to the Program Chairman Dr. John D. Briggs, Ohio State University, Department of Zoology & Entomology, 1735 Neil Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43210, as soon as possible. A form for this purpose is included. A 150 word abstract must be submitted to Dr. Briggs by May 1, 1968. Since there will be a selection of contributed papers made by the Program Committee, you are urged to get your abstracts in promptly. Do not forget to fill out the form completely naming projection needs etc.

You will notice that facilities have been requested for conference rooms to be made available for Thursday morning, afternoon, and evening for informal discussions on any subjects chosen by the membership. If there is any special topic that you feel is of sufficient importance it would warrant discussion by the assembled specialists will you please write to Dr. John D. Briggs and lay your suggestion before him. Again those who write first will be considered first.

A form for advanced registration is included with this mailing. There is limited air-conditioned housing available and those that apply first will undoubtedly get these preferred rooms. It is recommended that you complete this form and send it to AIBS as soon as possible. Watch forthcoming issues of BioScience for additional information concerning the SIP meetings and the AIBS meetings in general.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A COMPARATIVE PATHOLOGY SYMPOSIUM, chaired by J. K. Frenkel will be held on Tuesday AM, April 16, 1968, in the West Ballroom, Shelbourne Hotel, Atlantic City. The title of the Symposium is The Choice of Animal Models for the Study of Disease Processes in Man. A cocktail hour and dinner will be held in the Mirror Room, Hotel Shelbourne.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Dr. T. Hukuhara
(Temporary)

Division of Entomology
University of California
Berkeley, California 94720

C. G. Thompson and K. M. Hughes wish it brought to your attention that their (common) address is incorrect in the Directory of Insect Pathology put out by Ohio State University. Their correct address is:

Forestry Sciences Laboratory
Pacific Northwest Forest and Range
Experiment Station
P. O. Box 887
Corvallis, Oregon 97330

Cut here and return to John D. Briggs - (see address - page 2) - Please print

Names of Authors

Name of author presenting paper

Title

ABSTRACT (150 words)

Projection equipment required-

PRELIMINARY MEETING PLANS

Tuesday, September 3

Morning
Afternoon

AIBS Plenary Session
SIP Plenary Session
Presidential Address
SIP Business Meeting
Reports on International Congress
Mixer and dinner

Evening

Wednesday, September 4

Morning
Afternoon
Evening

Contributed papers, unpublished results
Contributed papers, unpublished results
Schnapps Night

Thursday, September 5

Morning, Afternoon,
and Evening

Rooms reserved for special conference for small groups up to 30 persons to deal with selected topics: protozoan infections of invertebrates, invertebrate cell culture, immunological responses etc.

Contributed papers for the sessions on Wednesday morning and afternoon are to be presented in 10 minutes with 5 minutes set aside for discussion.

Applications should be submitted to the Program Chairman Dr. John D. Briggs, Ohio State University, Department of Zoology & Entomology, 1735 Neil Avenue, Columbus, Ohio 43210, as soon as possible. A form for this purpose is included. A 150 word abstract must be submitted to Dr. Briggs by May 1, 1968. Since there will be a selection of contributed papers made by the Program Committee, you are urged to get your abstracts in promptly. Do not forget to fill out the form completely naming projection needs etc.

You will notice that facilities have been requested for conference rooms to be made available for Thursday morning, afternoon, and evening for informal discussions on any subjects chosen by the membership. If there is any special topic that you feel is of sufficient importance it would warrant discussion by the assembled specialists will you please write to Dr. John D. Briggs and lay your suggestion before him. Again those who write first will be considered first.

A form for advanced registration is included with this mailing. There is limited air-conditioned housing available and those that apply first will undoubtedly get these preferred rooms. It is recommended that you complete this form and send it to AIBS as soon as possible. Watch forthcoming issues of BioScience for additional information concerning the SIP meetings and the AIBS meetings in general.

* * *